

that existed were turning away from the Word of God. I entered Occidental College in Los Angeles in 1918 and two years before I entered it the teaching of the Bible in the college was just as true and sound and in accordance with the Word of God as you'd find anywhere in the world. The president of the college five years later boasted that they had more missionaries and more ministers from Occidental College

(13.5) than any other college in the country. And the college stood absolutely four-square for the Word of God. And the year before I went there they got a new professor while a very pious person, liked to go through and deny one thing after another in the Word of God. In my junior year they threw him out and they got another man ~~XXXX~~ but who actually was just as bad only more subtle than

And two years after I graduated from that college, which had been such a sound Christian college before I went there, I was back for a visit and a man who had been in my class, a brilliant fellow saw me coming down the hall and he yelled, "Here comes

And the Professor of Philosophy introduced me to his new assistant, a graduate of Seminary, and said, "I think of MacRae as sort of a lost soul
