

A few days later there was to be an opportunity to appear before the zoning board and get permission to zone the property for our use. I thought that I as president would have to appear before them and take an important part in these proceedings. This was a matter I did not look forward to with any pleasure but I was ready to do whatever was necessary. After different matters connected with buying the property and with the zoning getting the zoning permission had been discussed I said, "Well "It won't be necessary, will it, for me to get go to the Zoning Committee meeting next week," or, I may have said, "Will it ;be necessary..." I do not remember exactly, but I was greatly surprised when both Dr. Murray and the real estate man said, "No, there will be no need of your going." This seemed to me to indicate that it was his desire that financial and property matters be definitely in his hands, and if he wished to handle them I certainly had no objection.

During the next year the suggestion to purchase a list of people who give to Chn° organizations or who subscribe to a good evangelical magazine was presented to me as highly desirable. The more I thought of it, the more it seemed ~~at~~ to me a good thing. I had left Faith and had no desire to enter into public controversy in any way that would arouse discussion or put me into the position of attacking Dr. McIntire or Faith Seminary. Yet I did feel that there were a great many people who had contributed to Faith through the years, or who had attended its meetings or in various other ways were aware of me. Dr. McIntire had often praised me very highly in in The ~~Ex~~ Christian Beacon. I felt there was quite a group of Chn° people who would have no idea what had become of me and that many of them, if the cause of the new institution were presented to them, would be ready to become donors. ZIt seemed to me that these paper would forget within a few years at most would forget all about me and my name would not carry much weight with them to get them interested in the new school, but that at that point it would carry a very considerable amount of weight. I knew of no way to reach these people except by purchasing & lists of subscribers to evangelical magazines or else contributors to Chn°
