organizations and t-at if such a thing were done and publicity sent out it would reach a considerable number of these people and be a great help in financing the seminary. I did not think that this poss particular resourse would be available for many years, xho for people's memories would not last, and I know as a matter of fact, that there are many people today who wonder what became of me or if they give it any thought at all, or perhaps take it for granted that I am retired and living out in Arizona or perhaps have died.

When I presented this id-a to Dr. M° he was not at all responsive. I wrote him two or three letters about the matter, pressing it rather strongly, and he declined rather strongly and, if I remember correctly, even wrote a letter saying that if we were going to proceed in such a manner as I mentioned, that he would withdraw altogether from the project. This was the last thing I desired to have happen, and if he felt as strongly as that I simply dropped the matter. I understeed then that although it was never expressed, that it was his desire that financial matters be in his hands and although he always made it clear that he desired that academic matters should be in my hands.

Rental Galery and State

Very soon the The school board was so kind as to allow us to start a arrestative to the state classes in the building in the fall, even though the matter of the purchase had S. Control March not ;yet actually gone through, an and it was not until January or February that Corrective enclosed in the Central we had the right to remove the boards from the windows and make any changes in to state of a transferrer to the building. (March 10 I think). Dr. McIntire got friends of his to purchase (Carteria) bonds to be repaid any time up to twenty 20 years that the person mig buying 自己的 法法律 计自己 the bonds might designate. Most of them probably were for a comparatively few nelaistan and the years.

Almost immediately after we moved into the building I noticed that the office was put up in the mm middle of the second-floor halls. I was very disappointed in this, mm for my experience had been at Faith that if people gram came and looked around and did not see anyone to give them directions they were apt to go away. There was one case when we almost lost a very valuable donor because he was so
