

the progress of the movement. I mentioned to him that it was supposed to appear in the next issue of Christianity Today, and when I had asked Dr. Grimstead if whether there was any possibility of having it changed before it appeared, of getting into touch with Lindsell, he told me that he Lindsell was to be with him that evening. Dr. Boice said did not seem to feel it particularly important but he said that he would authorize me, if I desired, to tell Dr. Grimstead and/or Dr. Lindsell that he thought we should go easy on the paper.

I then phoned Dr. Grimstead again and told him that Dr. Boice had authorized me to pass on this word to him.

The pa So far as I know the paper did not appear in Chrs Christianity Today nor have I ever seen another copy -f it anywhere. IN a way I was sorry about this because there was much nx in the paper that was excellent, but there was that one long sentence which I thought would do great harm, and ~~xxx~~ there were two or three other places where I thought that changes would be vital if it were not to antagonize people instead of obtaining its objective.

Some omonths after this I received a notice I believe it was some months later, that there was to be a meeting held in Chicago at the Hyatt Regency hotel near the airport, with a request to address addressed to the members of the council and of the advisory board, to suggest people who might be good to invite to the meeting, but to be ~~xxx~~ very careful as to whom was suggested because it was the desire that the meeting should be a meeting of people who believe in inerrancy to discuss ways of promoting it, and it would be very unfortunate if anyone who opposed inerrancy were to be at that meeting. I listed all of our faculty and of our board. A little later I got was sent a list of several a few hundred people who some of whom were marked as having been invited, and having agreed to be at the mweting, but most of them were marked as people whom they were considering inviting, who had been recommended that they invite, with the request that each member of the advisory/~~board~~ board advise them of any individuals on the list who should not be invited to the/-~~meeting~~ meeting. I did not notice any on the list that I had reason to whose believe<sup>f</sup> in inerrancy I had reason
