

~~he~~ graduated two or ~~three~~ three years ago from the seminary. Charlie is a very bright fellow. He comes from Eckelmann's church and Eckelmann had told me a good bit about him before he came. His father, I believe, is head of the some financial department of the University university, and did not desire that his son should go to seminary, if I recall correctly. Davidson did excellent work with us. I always desired to get to know him but never felt that he showed any particular interest in getting to know me. My contacts with him were very slight. Occasionally maybe two or three times in the whole time that he was a ~~student~~ student here he came to the house for some particular purpose, but he never stayed, and if I would meet him outside he was cordial but never seemed interested in talking with me. I was disappointed in this for I felt he was a person with real promise and I would like to have known him better. After he His wife, by the way, came from highly educated people; she was a graduate of Cornell and I believe that her people were ready to support her to ytake advanced study in Princeton U^o toward a Ph. D. in computer science, if I recall correctly. The result was that after his first It was after his first year here, I believe, that he got married, and then he and his wife moved to Princeton. This meant that he had quite a long drive to take here and back every day, but he did not seem to mind it. After I have an impression that after he finished here that she continued one more year at Princeton, though I am not quite sure. Either about the time he graduated, or a year later she got her Ph.D. and went got a position, I believe, teaching computer science at the Univ^o of Pa^o, and they moved somewhere in that area. Last summer when the lady who runs the class at Wanamakers' (I ~~can't~~ can't think of her name) who asked got Grace to teach a class at Wanamaker's that started with ten of fifteen women and she thought was going to get to be several hundred in size she got Grace to g teach it jst about the time we started Biblical--perhaps a little later. Grace used to go down there every Wednesday evening. She always I always insisted that she get someone to go with her. Anyway, she does not drive at night and it was necessary to drive from here to and from Lansdale. For two
