

president again of the college where he had been before he came to Occidental.

Dr. Evans used ~~xxx~~ often to talk about how God is Jesus Christ is lord of all or he is not lord at all. The way he said it and the way he taught I had ~~the~~ the impression that it was shifting our religious interests off into all sorts of other fields and lessening the emphasis on the spiritual. In his teaching I believe there was a good bit of modernism ~~(xxx)~~ (cap?)

I don't know how much of it I was capable of recognizing at that time, though I know definitely there were features that I knew were quite wrong. <sup>in class</sup> Once/he raised the question about the possibility of a bodily resurrection. It seems to me that he said he spoke about a man's being buried at sea and then a fish eating the corpse and then the fish being caught and people eating it and so on; how could the ~~his~~ bodies be raised again? I then presented the idea that I had heard that every cell in the body was changed in about every seven years, so I said, "Surely what makes the body is not these particular bits of chemical element but something else that combines it together into an ~~a~~ organism and surely the Lord could ~~reconstruct~~ reconstruct that in any way or time that He might choose. I don't know what words I used at the time. He would talk to us ~~when~~ when ~~xx~~ I /was a sophomore, I believe, he was still there, and he would speak about the papers he received from his freshman Bible class, and he said, "How interesting it was (quotes/) to think of Jesus as seen by a freshman." I thought it was much more important how a freshman ought to see Jesus than the way he looked at it. However, I did not feel ~~xx~~ that he would be pleased with disagreement, and ~~a~~ while I ~~occasionally~~ occasionally spoke in class I did not do it a great deal, and I remember that when I would write an examination for him I would preface most of my answers with the statement ~~that~~ "The professor has said," and then would ~~give~~ give him a very accurate statement of what he had taught in class. Later, when I had Professor ~~Wiemann~~ Wiemann the situation was quite different. He was perhaps he was more liberal or modernistic than Evans. I'm not sure. ~~However~~ However, he liked discussion and differing views. He would love to have everybody come
