

they have poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. Here we are, believing in Christ, listening to Him, coming to follow Him. He has wrought all our work in us. He has rescued us from idolatry, rescued us from heathenism, brought us into His glorious kingdom. 50 years ago all our colleges were ~~now~~ filled with people coming to them and talking about the world in this generation. If the church will just lift itself up and stir itself and the young people will go out to serve the Lord in this earth, the whole world will be evangelized, in this generation. That was the hope which 50 years ago, occurred in all our colleges. What has happened since? There has been a great missionary movement, and much true Christianity has been carried to the very ends of the earth. But the great organizations of 50 years ago, most of them have become riddled with apostasy and unbelief. And in this country hundreds, yes thousands of churches where the word of God was proclaimed, in power, 50 years ago, today are hearing the gospel which is not -
