

thus far that could be most any city but he continues, I will scrape her dust from her and make her like the top of a rock. It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God and it shall become a spoil to the nations. For thousand of years before Ezekiel time there was in that great city of Tyrus up on the coast of . And he said I will make her like , I will destroy the walls of Tyrus, I will scrape her, I will make her like the top of a rock. What a strange thing to say about a city. Memphis perhaps comes nearer to it than I ever heard of but it certainly have not taken the dust of Memphis and cast it into the sea as it says here in of Tyrus There is another verse that brings it out a little more fully over in verse 12. They shall make a spol of thy riches and make a prey of thy merchandise and they shall break down thy walls and destroy thy pleasant houses and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water. Now it wasn't long after Ezekiel wrote that he could- Nebechenezzer the great conqueror attacked Tyrus and he attacked the city and after quite a seize, he conquered it and he took many of the people and sold them for slaves a few of the people escaped. And they escaped from the city about half a million a little less, out in the ocean and they left here for an idol and these few people living here on the island, they were very experienced sailo^rs, they had some ships there he would have had quite a job to demolish and ^{he} ^{ed} /destroy/ the great city and left it to a ruin ruins. But it stood there alone and it remained there after his time and for another per od of ³⁰⁰ 200 years. This ruin there on the mainland and the people there on the island ^{skilled} gradually increased in numbers and developed in strength and they were ^{still} accomplished /mariners and they developed in commerce and they built a great city on the island which they ^{called} ~~passed~~ Tyre And on the main land they left the ruins. And then 300 years ~~pāst~~ and Alexander the great came with his army from the east and to attack the Persian empire and the new city of Tyre on the island was in ee with the
