

So marred will be his visage, more than any man and his form more than the sons of men. So we have Christ exalted and why should he be exalted because he had been humiliated but Israel for its sin He is not for any sin he had born nor What more could their hearts----

So he is to be humiliated. So, his visage is to be marred, more than any man and his form more than the sons of men. So, again at this so, shows the result by as a result of this, what will he do. So, shall he sprinkle many nations and the words from the Greek here is a word used in Leviticus with dozens of times to lead up with blood and water to purify in the temple and means of His humiliation, by means of His being marred by means of His death on the cross, he shall bring purification and cleansing to many nations so he shall sprinkle many nations and the waters of baptism shall come to ~~many~~ individuals of every continent. Every country, representing purification life is free as a result of His atoning death So we have a series here of exaltation. Because, true he could go into purification of many nations. Kings shall shut their mouths at him. Now that doesn't fit the word astounded.

So kings will shut their mouths if you are trying to open --

The kings shall shut their mouths at him--there is no answer to it.

The revised version says, so shall they sprinkle many nations or

. Well in the last century there was some who did the sprinkling What is this man there suffering got to do with cleansing and purification It can't be sprinkled, it must be something else. But the word is in the peoples / ^{positive} . If only had been / ^{positive} and / ^{made affirmative} . But they said how does this mean sprinkle . Well, it is positive, so it must mean ~~sprinkle~~ he causes the water over the blood to jump. That is to cause it to sprinkle Well in these case it doesn't fit, so it says and the people

(very hard to understand - 11 $\frac{1}{2}$) and it is here the Christian teaching that He is the one to purify the nations as a result of his humiliation, His death of humiliation and so here is a case where there is the authorized version is exactly right and accurate and the modern and
