

are conferring to the celeb and also to the 13th . And here the kings shut their mouths, they can't get them open for that which is not been told them and that which they have not heard they and here the prophets say Who will believe our report and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed. For he shall grow up before them as a tender plant and as a root out of a dry ground. They said, could any good thing come out of Nazareth? You don't expect anything there and the Romans said I'll just out of a dry ground. there comes a root, as a root out of a dry ground . He has no form nor comeliness . When we shall see him there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrow and acquainted with grief and and he was despised and we esteemed him not. Surely he has born our griefs and and carried our sorrows. Here is a translation that is very poor. The word here translated grief merely pictures, the word sorrow here is literally painted. Surely he has born our sickness and born our pain and why translate grief to sorrow Because he has born our grief and carried our sicknesses. Some people say therefore this means as a result of of Christ, we are cleansed of all our sickness and can have healing everyone of us and . It means nothing of the kind. It is a prediction of the healing work of Christ in Galilee. And in Jerusalem and it is quoted in the New Testament. where it says after /ingl believe some of his heal it is Matthew 27:30, No it isn't It is Matthew 8:17 It says that after some of his healing work-- This work might-be-done was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, Surely he has born our sickness and carried our sins. It is a quotation from End6of C 30
