

but I just don't think God did that. I think that ^{what} God did was to use the human instruments for His purpose in such a way ~~XXXXX~~ that they retained their individuality, but that they expressed the ideas that ~~that~~ He had taught them or that He had ^{led} ~~taught~~ them to learn ^{through} ~~from~~ their experience, to express them in such a way that ~~that~~ they were kept from error. Then he told something else, and said, "You see how its fits with this?" And he went on through, and ~~KKK~~ he spent nearly an hour. And then when he had finished all those he said, "Now, don't get any false impression from ~~KK~~ what I've said." He said, "The Bible is not accurate in and dependable." He said, "There are many mistakes in the Bible. But," he said, "these archeological
