

interesting aspect of God's plan? God is going to intervene, and when things get so bad it seems they couldn't possibly be any worse, God is going to ~~to~~ intervene and to seize the hosts of the high ones on high and the kings of the earth ~~and-~~ upon the earth and gather them together as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shut them up in the prison, and there they will remain ~~form~~ many days, and ~~for~~ during those many days you have what is described in the first twelve verses. Do we have languishing, misery, desolation upon the earth? No. The first verses are not presenting what happened in these many days; they are describing the Babylonian exile. But during those many days, these ~~se~~ prisoners languished in the ~~pries-~~ prison. They were ~~us~~ unable to deceive the nations any longer or to commit any worse havoc upon the earth, but God ~~to~~ keeps them there many days, and then after many days He makes a call on them. We use it in the sense of a visitation, a visitation of the ~~Allmighty--~~ Almighty. And we find it in the Bible: "God has visited His people and brought them/ up out of ~~to~~ the exile"; "God visited/ the sins of the fathers upon the children"/. "To visit" in the Bible sense of this Hebrew word--the Hebrew word means "to intervene with power and make a change, a great change in one's condition." To intervene, and to take the one who is in misery and exalt him, or take the one who is in misery and to put him into worse misery. To take the one who is high and to topple him. "To visit" is to intervene with great power and to make a great change and it is used frequently/ in the Scripture in that sense, the Hebrew word ~~is~~ _____. And so here these prisoners are shut up in the prison many days, ~~for~~ and after many days they are visited. Does that
