

all over the lands you have large, ~~you have large~~ Russian camps and a great number of people. These people are isolated from the German people just as far as possible. There was one man who was telling his experience not so long ago who had been not so far from Berlin and had escaped. (3 1/2) . And this man was a few miles from Berlin. He had a ? job as a janitor ? in the barracks of the Russian soldiers. And he said that in this barrack where they had several hundred Russian soldiers right near a German town there were not more than two of them allowed at the same time to go into the German town. They have to keep their soldiers isolated else they become contaminated by seeing what free enterprise can do. And this janitor was there for some ~~months~~ months and after he had been there for some months the Russian soldiers began to talk with him. He knew Russian, and they began to chat for a bit and as time went on the Russians began to express their feeling and opinions about economic situation ; and he saw that the general dissatisfaction that was among them (5) and then he said that one day he was called before the secret police and the secret police remember that he served in the German army during the war, and they said to him, "You committed terrible atrocities during the war in Russia. Don't you realize what could happen to you because of these atrocities that we have proof of?" He told them they he had nothing to do with these atrocities. And they said that he did and that they had absolute proof of them. And he would ~~not~~ in most cases, faced with the punishment of the truth that they were after would have ~~not~~ confessed and not be tortured proportionally. That is what most of them do. But he said that he knew that they didn't have any proof of any atrocities. Not only had he not committed any, but they didn't have any proof that that he had committed any because those who had committed them had been liquidated long before. They had been liquidated and sent to concentration camps and so he knew it was a bluff. And so he said, "you know that what you say about me isn't true; I was in the concentration camp three years ago, five years. You don't have anything on me. This is just a bluff." They said, "Well we know you did, but anyway if you don't want to get into trouble We'll tell you what you can do. You can do us a favor." I wished I could have had you feed the 5th
