

among people....." (end of record 2)

.....He said, "Look at this department, this man and his assistant, oh, they are just like brothers. And look at that department, the way they work together, it's just wonderful to be like this. And look at this department, I never saw anything like it!" Well, he was the man who was there for one year, and so ~~ixthroughtxxxxx~~ he saw only from a distance. I was there ~~the~~ three years and knew many of the men very well. And I knew, for instance, that two of the men, of whom he had said that they had such a wonderful attitude, one of them got so angry at the other one that he just got in his car and drove away, and couldn't face the other until he had gotten control of himself. Another case, one of them went before the directors and made accusations against one of the others. It comes anywhere, any kind of work you do. There is that in human nature which brings differences and disagreements, dislikes. But God has commanded us that we must have love for the brethren.

In John 15:12, we find that our Lord Jesus Christ said that "This is my commandment, that ye love one another". How are we to love one another? "As I have loved you". That is the way that He wants us to love one another. He even said in Luke 6:27-32, "I say unto you which hear, love your enemies." He said, in verse 32, "If ye love them which love you, what thank have ye, for sinners also love these that love them." Now we should not think of any Christians as our enemies, we should not. They should not be our enemies, but we may feel that way, and I think that this command, here, thought it may ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ have particular reference to those outside the fold, is worth particularly more inside the fold. God wants us to have His spirit of love for all who are His, that everyone ~~one~~ for whom Jesus Christ gave His life, everyone who has accepted Him, who is ~~x~~ born again through His blood, we should think of as our brothers. And we should love them, and we should never do that which would hurt them. And we should never say things about them which will lead other people to have less love for them.
