

the knowledge of God's true love, ~~the path of life and the path of death~~ this requires us to go out, as a shepherd driving away the wolves, and saving the sheep, true love requires that you think of the masses, the people who are being diseased, and you protect them from that which would lead them astray through love. Yes, you can even have an attitude of love toward the people who are leading them astray, a prayer that God will turn them about and save them, and lead them to be those who are ~~building~~ building up instead of tearing down.

"Though I have the tongue of men and of angels, and have not love, it profits me nothing. Though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, though I have all faith so that I could move mountains, and have not love.." Oh, that God would move upon the hearts of every one of us, that He would fill us with this real spirit of divine love, that He would help us to be so filled with a love of God that that first commandment would find a real fulfillment within our hearts. That we would love the Lord our God with all our hearts, and all our minds, and all our strength, and with all our understanding. Oh, that He would give us a love for Christians, such a love so that our words would not be as sounding brass and tinkling cymbals, that from a heart that flows with love, should come a desire to help them. That He would make each of us one that He could use to pour out His love. Oh, that He would give us a love for all of His people, so that we would not look at them and see them as they are, that they are weak and see the wickedness in their sin, but that we would see what they might become if they were turned to Christ and won to Him, Who is wonderful. (Prayer)
