

church which had been there for two or three years at that time, and had gotten into certain situations which had made it rather unpopular in the town, and it looked as if the people in it were very loyal and very sincere, but there was a hard line ~~again~~ against it. And it looked as if there was little possibility of getting other people in the church. So Mr. Schaeffer said, here, I ~~can~~ can work, I can ~~think~~ ^{preach} and I can toil and maybe I can build it up to twenty five or thirty in the course of ten years. But he said that he wanted to build it faster than that. And he looked around for a side method that would bring results quicker. And he found that there was no good work for boys in the town. And he began ~~to work~~ ^{working} with the boys in the town, gathering them together, and teaching them, and taking them out on hikes and having camps with them in the summer. And he established a work among boys. And pretty soon he had boys from all over the town, he had a large group of boys, ~~and~~ with whom he was ~~doing~~ doing this work, putting the time in on it when he wasn't doing his sermons and practising them ~~in the way~~ ^{at the rate} I mentioned to you. And he got this boys' work developed, and then it wasn't long before the parents of these boys began coming to occasional services in the church, and gradually got an opening. Meanwhile, he had found a church just outside of town, a large church which had a pastor which was a good true gospel man, but who was in the Presbyterian Church U.S.A., and so Mr. Schaeffer went and talked with him, and he had no thought of leaving the church, he saw the apostasy, he didn't like it, but he wouldn't do anything about it, ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ And so he kept up this friendliness with the ~~man~~ ^{of the gospel} man, and he discussed the matters with him, he became known to some extent to his ~~people~~ people, but it looked like an avenue which would never help his church at all. However, in the process ~~of~~ of it, the man was called to another city, and the Presbytery put a modernist in ^{his place}. Soon, after the modernist came to the town, Mr. Schaeffer went out there, it was only about two miles out of town, and he went out and he began to go to person after person in the church pointing out the modernism of their new pastor, and saying this is what you can expect in an organization which is
