

may be able to do a great deal of good. You will have more truth than a great many ministers have, ever have, in their life. When you graduate from seminary. And to take that truth and to present it is wonderful, and we rejoice in the presentation of truth by everyone who presents it, and we should, and we should do everything that we can to hold up the hands of those who are presenting the truth. The one great function of our ministry is to take the well known truths and make them known.

But, now, there is another function. And that is the leadership of the people of God. And this relates, not so much to the preaching, now, as to our study. In our study, we must learn to ~~find~~ find how to get truth out of Scripture. And it ~~is~~ is good for us to teach people how to get truth out of Scripture, so ~~that~~ that others, also, can do it. It is vital that we do that, but ~~it~~ it is not our main consideration. It is good to do some ~~of~~ of it in your sermons. And to do a lot of it in your Bible teaching. But your main ~~consideration~~ consideration in both the sermons and the Bible classes is to get the great truths of salvation and of the Christian life, that the average person knows little about, even if he has heard them a good many times, to get them to become reality in his life. To make him to understand them to a point where they are real and living to him. That is the big thing. That is the vital thing. But ~~this~~ other may become very ~~to~~ vital in times of crisis, that you understand the Scripture correctly, and you gain more and more truths from your studies of Scripture, and when it comes to your study of the Scripture, and to the teaching that you give to the few people who are capable of going on to be really capable interpreters of the less clear ~~passages~~ passages of Scripture, it is very vital important that you ~~do~~ give them a clear and true understanding of what exactly, to how great an extent, we can draw truth from types.

Now the danger, of course, in types is that it becomes very attractive to a person to find all the types of Christ he can, ~~and~~ in
