

...we should not be surprised when it does, but we must put on the whole armor of God, having our loins girt about with truth, we must stand on it, but we must have (3/4)

To keep us from becoming castaway, to keep individuals from becoming castaway, to keep the movement for God's truth (1) wiles of Satan. Luke and Demas (1 1/4)

Luke going on, Demas has forsaken me, <sup>Loved</sup> having this present world. Oh, it's easy to be in a wonderful ~~head~~-boat, to take you across the sea and clean to the shore. (1 1/2)

If you cling to the shore you'll never get anywhere. You can think you want the Lord, you can say beautiful things about the Lord, <sup>but if</sup> you can cling to that which is wrong, if you cling to your fleshly pride and your desire for your own name and your own glory, if you're thinking well, you're going to be a big one in the days to come instead of how you're going to serve the Lord, if you're letting the lust of the flesh lead you to slip over a little bit in borrowing without permission, in taking that which you do not rightfully (2 1/4) there is a cancer there growing till it fills your whole being, there is a grave question whether you've ever really been saved or not, only God knows. May the Lord look into the hearts of us this morning, may He enable each to see ourselves as we are, guilty sinners. We all (2 1/2)

Oh, may He look in, may he cleanse, may

He purge us from what is wrong (2 3/4)

May he enable us to turn aside from the sins so easily beset us.

Oh, may He cause that anyone here who has been guilty of the things I have referred to that anyone who has may speedily come, turn away from it (3)

May he enable the rest of us to find out who it is, to purge it out in order that the work of God (3 1/2)

Now let's have some of you lead in prayer, let's have a number of you taking part, that the Lord will protect his testimony, that he will cleanse, that he will cleanse the heart of each one of us...
