If we are going forward, and if we are not going forward, we have every reason to question whether we have ever really started in the Christian life. Those who make a real start in the Christian life, have got in them that which ~~they~~ makes them want to go forward, to understand the Bible, and to know God's will for them. If you don't have this, don't try to build it up, with pushing, with will-power. Think, go back to 1 Cor. Think of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the perfect image of God, dying on the cross for you. Do you know Him truly as your Saviour? Do you realize what it means to be a sinner, lost, apart from Him? Do you realize what it means that He the infinite God, willing to give His life that you, a useless worm of the dust, should be saved? Do you realize that you can have life eternal because He died in your stead? Oh, throw your sins at His feet. Look to Him as Saviour. Let Him come into your life, and then let Him lead you to study His Word, to love Him...
