are destroying individuals, that are leading people into damnation. Christ said of them, Woe unto them, It were better that a milstone were tied abouthis neck and that he were cast into the depths of the sea! To have this perfect hatred-- the kind that has depths of feeling because of our determination to follow the Lord and do His will, but sit that is directly wisely and sanely to advance the work of the Lord and to oppose all that which is edm/dat contrary to His will, rather than blindly striking out and as a result usually accomplishing nothing.
