

them, and you go on to somewhere else, and you remember what a wonderful success you had in that place, but it means very little to you. And maybe those twenty were really saved, maybe God really did ...11½... to the Lord or maybe they were moved emotionally and said a few ~~mx~~ words without realizing what they said. But when the Lord leads you to help people in your heart, to pray for them, to yearn for ~~the~~ them that they may come to be saved, and he says even in my bonds I have held you in my heart, in the ...12... and the proclamation is of the gospel, we have a right to have a confidence that God ~~is~~ going ~~to~~ to enable us to establish...12½....

Oh, God wants us to go into the work of the Lord not as a profession, in which here is a calling, here is a job ...12½.....get a living from. He wants us to go into it as a calling, as a striving for the Lord, as an effort in which our whole soul is poured out to accomplish12½.... For God is my record, he says, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ, in the very tender mercies, the affections, in relation to the inner-being of the Lord Jesus Christ is my longing after you. You know I think God wants us to have something of that attitude toward other Christians... 13.... He wants us to have it toward the unbelievers. We seek one who does not know the Lord Jesus Christ, and that one needs to know the message of Jesus Christ.13½..... It is a tremendous thing to go to that one and tell them how they can be saved through Christ and turn from darkness to light. He wants us to love Him.....13½.... I wish Mr. Curnow could tell you sometime the story he told me of an experience he had when he began selling oil, of going into a plant where the man before him.....14..... and Mr. Curnow ~~when~~ went in and found them very hard people to deal with but the people belonged to a group with whom he had a special interest for years, and felt that God had laid in on our hearts to have a special burden for them, and he went in and took rebuke and criticism from that man, because in his heart he had a love for that man's soul, and he talked to that ~~man~~ man about the Lord, and kept coming back, and eventually that man gave him one of the three largest accounts that this big oil company had in the whole city
