

of Philadelphia. That man.....end of Record 1

.....for those who have been born again into the kingdom of Christ, those who have come to know Him, every believer is a brother in the Lord, and every believer, everyone who knows the Lord Jesus Christ, is one who is on His way to eternal life, and one who has Christ in ~~him~~ him, but one who has many imperfections, and many weaknesses, and much that can irritate a man, and can...1 $\frac{1}{4}$..., but God wants us to have an attitude toward those who know the Lord Jesus Christ like the attitude that Paul had for the Philippians. God is my record how greatly I long after thee in the tender mercies of Jesus Christ. He wants us to have a tender, yearning love for His people, a love for all who know Him not, and a yearning to bring them into His kingdom. But beyond that a tender yearning love for each of ...1 $\frac{3}{4}$... Here is a man for whom Christ died. ~~Jesus~~ Jesus loved him very much, or he would not have gone to the cross for him. And Jesus is in him the hope of glory. I may not be able to see it, you may not be able to see it, but it is there, and2.....he is going some day to be like Christ. Oh that we would realize the beauty, the glory of that which God has ~~implanted~~ implanted in our hearts, of the one who believes in the Lord Jesus Christ. And even though we can't seem to realize it is there, and ~~to~~ to realize it so keenly that we would develop in ourselves that spirit of love, that longing, that desire to be ...2 $\frac{1}{2}$... those who belong to Christ, those who are2 $\frac{3}{4}$ God is my record, how greatly I long after you in the ~~and~~ tender mercies of Jesus Christ.....3.....These words come from the depths of Paul's being, as he looks with longing, yearning longing....3.....Oh.... I Cor 13, you can speak with the tongue of men and of angels, and have not love...3 $\frac{1}{2}$God might usehe may take an unbeliever and with the Word of God, and lead someone to Jesus Christ, but if he is one that is really used of the Lord, the one who really accomplishes things for Him....3 $\frac{1}{2}$ is one who has in him the characters of Paul, the character of yearning love towards all those who might be won to Christ, but particularly this yearning love that Paul had for other Christians, whether they bear our particular brand, belong to
