

I will go further than that, I will ~~q~~ question whether he truly loves Christ or not. Because if you love Christ, you will take to you the ~~command~~ command that Jesus gave Peter, and you will desire to lead His sheep so much that you won't wait three years to get started. If you love the Lord ~~Jesus~~ Jesus Christ when you see somebody, you will want to bring the message of Christ to him.

Feed my sheep. Others .....ll 3/4..... which are not of this fold. Them also must I bring, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd, and how is he going to bring them? He brings them through our carrying His message to His people, and showing them how they can be saved. It is grand for us to have our discussions of theology, it is vital that we get our theology correct. It is important that we understand God's truth to the very best of our ability, but if we understand His ~~truth~~ truth as an element, and an end in itself, instead of as a means, He will spew us out of His mouth. He is not interested in that sort of thing. I have heard this statement made. Crossing the ocean will never make a man a missionary. There ~~are~~ people who go through school in this country, and study because they think the Lord has called them to serve over in Siam, or ~~some~~ some ~~other~~ other country, and they are not the least bit interested in anybody....12 3/4... They are interested in everything they can learn about Siam, and how they can serve the Lord in Siam, and they are interested in learning the things they are going to use there, and gathering the theology, and getting the facts, and they think when they get to Siam they will be missionaries. And my guess is that in most cases they will find that the Lord never called them to Siam in the first place. Because if the Lord wants you to be a missionary in Siam five years from now, He wants you to be a missionary in Philadelphia right today. And if you don't have a love for God's people in Philadelphia today, and a desire to help them, and to bring them to truth, it is mighty unlikely that crossing the ocean is suddenly going to give you a love for the people there, and the desire to bring to those ~~people~~ people the truth that Jesus has for them today. Feed my sheep. I am anxious to have people go out from Faith Seminary who
