your thought across ~~so that~~ people are interested to listen to you and want to listen to you instead of finding it a chore to do it. Each of us has different problems, but the Lord wants us so to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom and that when the time comes, that people lift your arm and it falls back, they look into your glazed eye, because your body is dead, your spirit has gone to be with the Lord, they will say there's a man who made his time count for God. There's a man who took the qualities he had and developed them, improved them, made them such that he could use what the Lord had given him, in order to really accomplish for God. So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. The Lord doesn't want us merely to do ~~this~~ preparing in seminary and then go on the rest of our lives on what we do here. He wants us to get the habit of seeing how we can improve, to get the habit of increasing ~~your~~ knowledge of the scripture, to get the habit of going to the original to see what it really means, to get the habit of learning how to increase your influence, to increase your effectiveness, how to win people to your Lord, instead of driving them away from your Lord, how to avoid the mis-impressions that are so easy for every one of us to give, how to be an effective instrument for Him..

May the Lord enable each one of us to learn so to number our days that we apply our hearts unto wisdom. Let us pray...
