

coal was, to be applied to us, that we may be born again, that we may be re-generated, that we may be adopted into the family of Christ. We need that, and once that is done we appear in God's sight as perfect and holy as His Son, we have a positionⁱⁿ of sonship which assures us joy, happiness with Him forever. That is the position which He gives us when we are saved. But He does not, when we are saved, give us a condition (10 1/4)

He starts us on a path, and every day we (10 1/2)

take the live coal from off the altar and apply it to our lips, in order ~~that~~ we may ~~direct~~ (10 3/4) progress in sanctification, and that we will be ^{made} more like the Son of God, that we may be cleansed from our sin (10 3/4)

Because every one of us needs this reaction, no matter how far we have come in the Christian life, this reaction that Isaiah had. Woe is me, I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips. We need to look day by day for the answer to our need, the application of the live coal from off the altar, an application of the death of Christ to our condition (11 1/4)

(11 1/2)...our position before God, justification before God, a membership ~~of~~ in the family of God that will endure through all eternity. We need the condition of Christ ^{of} ~~we~~ need to have the faith in God, and then we need (11 3/4) ourselves after we are saved (12)

(record unclear to end, 13 3/4)