

(record unclear from 1/2 to 1 1/4)

...we immediately hear the voice of our Saviour. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? ~~Then said, I~~ Of this I am certain, the vision of God (1 1/4)

Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? (1 1/2)

(2 1/4) Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? All over this world

All over the world are people who need to hear what God has to say, and what He is doing. /

Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? We need the vision of service, the vision (2 1/2) and of course, if we're truly saved, we will give the answer Isaiah gave.

Then said I, Here am I; send me. This is indeed a sight worth seeing, that was contained in the sermon by this professor in the seminary (2 3/4)

But the chapter has thirteen verses, and these three sights are in the first 8 verses. And Paul says in the New Testament, he says in 2 Timothy that all scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable.

I picked up a book by a man who was president of a theological seminary when he wrote the book, and in this book he claims to be a defense of orthodox Christianity, in this book he says, we must interpret the Old Testament by the New Testament. We must take the truncated ethic of the Old Testament and explain
