

whom it comes and to see how far short they fall of most of their actions of the ideals that they have and ~~x~~ that they meet Jesus Christ to save them from their sins. The kindness and goodness that is everywhere in this world is astonishing. The wickedness is also astonishing. The ~~wid- ei~~ wickedness, the misery of this world goes beyond belief; But the two are mixed together all through the world. Now it is true that the level of that which Christianity produces is far ~~he~~ higher than that which any non-Christian ever produced. You will not find the level of humanitarian interest, the level of ~~hee~~ helpfulness in any non-Christian background that you find on the average in nations which have had the benefit of a Christian background. But you'll find individuals in the non-Christian environment who are much better than many individuals in the nation that has the Christian background. It is interesting to find that in most cases where you will find some one who has done a great work fir-ferof God, you will find a Christian background somewhere. Perhaps they have have turned their back upon it , but there's an emotion that has come from it. You don't find many from a background withouta real Christian impetus who accomplish great things for the welfare of ⁶ ~~X Humanini~~ humanity. I was much interested when I was a ~~t~~ student going to a YMCA Conference, and at this conference there was this a preacher who had told us that the most influential man in that area tremendous influence.this man had. When I heard him preach there was nothing Christian in what he said. There was some humanitarian principles, etc. but nothing Christian in it. When he referred to the Bible it was to point out our some assumed contradiction in it. some difficulty . He had a tremendous influence, and one time he preached on the need of people going into the ministry. I thought I would like to talk to that man and see why he thinks people should go into the ministry, not believing any more than he does. I there the liberal ministers there ,just like he told me, I've had liberal ministers come up to me and say I wish I could get your emotion. They say