

Man who Corrupted Hadleyburg," but in the story he told us how they changed the statement to "lead us into temptation," because people kept away from temptation and then they had no assurance strength to meet it. Well, there's an element of truth in that, but that's not what the Lord is speaking of here. The Lord is pointing out to us the fact that we're going to have plenty of temptation, without looking for it. When somebody says to me well, my faith is strong enough to stand, I'm not worried, I say, you should get your seminary training ^{in a place} where the word of God is honored, not where unbelief is being sucked into your mind in a subtle way. You say, oh, my faith is strong enough ^{to stand}. The Lord said let him that standeth take heed lest he fall. We will strike plenty of temptation and difficulty without going looking for it. We pray the Lord, lead us not into temptation, because we realize that we are weak erring sinners and many a man that we see fall, and instead of kicking him out of the way, ^{should stop and} we think how would I stand that particular temptation if I were faced by it? Pray the Lord to strengthen for the temptations that we're going to meet, lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Let us not experience in human temptation the consequences of our (8 1/4)

Pray the Lord to deliver us from evil and to make us strong to face the temptations we have to meet, ~~th~~ (8 1/2) but oh pray Him to keep the temptations such as ~~to~~ we ~~keep the~~ are able to bear. Lead us not into temptation. There is no mistake on the part of the Lord Jesus Christ. I don't think we should leave money lying around. I don't think we should. I don't think we should tempt the brethren. I think we ought to be able to stand the temptation, I think we should, but I don't think we should put temptation in the way of others. Lead us not into temptation. And when we meet the temptation, let's pray the Lord to enable us to stand it, to resist it, lest we be cast away, and accomplish nothing for Him, and we ourselves be cast away. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, literally, from the Evil One. And I believe the Lord wants us to recognize the activity of Satan who will lead us astray if we permit ~~H~~ him to do so.
