

Christ as Saviour, that He has really come into our hearts, and that we're really following Him, may He enable us each one to make absolutely sure^{of} that, and then as Satan gets into our hearts and makes us think oh this is the way it looks to me, I will not have this man to rule over me, may He help us to root that out, by following Him and His Word.

Then, Oh, may He enable us to search out ~~what~~ talents He has given^{us} because He has given every one of us talents, to search out what (4 3/4) talents has given us, because he's given each one of us talents - to search them out — and to use them for His glory, not just take them, but to use them to accomplish, to occupy till He comes. Then to hear those words from Him, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into (4) the joy of thy Lord. Let us pray: ~~Oh~~

Oh, God, our Father, we thank you for these parables. We thank you for the insight they give into this world in which we live (5 1/4)

Oh, our God, help us to do the service you've called us to, help us to help others, help us along the way to be of use to others, in helping and opening their minds, and showing them more clearly (5 1/2)

But Oh our God help us never to give time to thinking about other people's service, but to go and do our own. Help us not to bury our talents (5 3/4) in the earth. Help us, we pray thee, to use them to accomplish to do the will of Christ, to occupy till He come, to win people from being rebellious citizens to become faithful Christians, and even so, Lord, come. Amen.
