

CHAPEL SERVICE - SEPT. 27, 1963

Now, this is Faith Seminary, and so I thought it would be good this morning to look at the great chapter of the Bible on Faith. I am sure that *every-*one immediately knows what chapter that is. The eleventh chapter of the book of Hebrews. I am not going to read a great deal of the chapter ~~of~~ this morning. In fact, I am ~~going~~ only ~~to~~ going to read the first 16 verses of it, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders ~~ob-~~ obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do ~~app-~~ appear. By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his ~~x~~ gifts: By faith Enoch was translated that he ~~w~~ould not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with ~~x~~ fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. By ~~for-fa-~~ faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, ~~new~~ not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob
