

Friday. How much better to spend their time trying to bring people to the knowledge of the Lord, and to tell them how they can be saved through Christ, instead of arguing about the precise date on which the crucifixion occurred. In Another church 50 years ago there was tremendous controversy. Some felt that we should always stand to pray, others felt we should always kneel to pray. God is not interested in the attitude[position] of our bodies when we pray. He is interested in the attitude of our spirits, and any attitude of the body that helps us in making this before God is helpful.
