that formed thee from~~y~~ the womb, I am the Lord that maketh al~~d~~ things; that stretcheth forth the abroad the earth by myself;" ~~That frustrateth the tokens of-~~
In ~~o~~n~~~~ other words, he says, I am the Almighty God. You can believe what I say. ~~He stretched forth~~ He is here stressing His creative power whereby ~~He~~ created the universe. Then he goes on : "That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their~~y~~ knowledge foolish." He says, look at these people who predicted what was going to happen, which are utterly wrong. ^{11:05} You know the _____ of God. I predict what will surely happen. More than 150 years later how exactly his predictions came to be fulfilled. They were, according to~~d~~ the predictions, going into exile. And then what happened? ...And they say that he will equally bring it to pass... He continues;^d in verse 26: "That confirmeth the word of his servant~~, and performeth the counsel of his messengers;~~ - his servant of course is here referred to Isaiah. He confirmed what word of his servant, ~~and performeth the counsel of his messengers;~~ - Isaiah had said, "and performeth the counsel of his messgers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built..." And there would be no sense of saying, ~~that~~ I am the one who has said that you are going to be Philadelphia ~~will-w~~t~~-be~~ inhabited. The West Philadelphia, you are going to be rebuilt. There would be nothing to say something like that. But if ~~this city were destroyed-~~ we were to have a great destruction, and the people thought that there was no future for our land, that would be a tremendous thing to say...

~~But when Isaiah sa-~~ The people in Isaiah*s day(10.00) who believed in the true prophets knew that the se things were going to happen. And so, this was a great comfort to them. (He is putting himself in the imagination in the situation where these things are to happen. The godly people of his day recognized
