

Behold my servant shall deal prudently--it ;means that He will deal wisely and effectively in such a way as the accomplishments that are desired occur. It is translated , Behold my servant shall prosper, and . . . .we must say that this is ~~x~~ a summary of the whole chapter. Behold my servant shall ~~pro~~ prosper. He shall accomplish that to whichHe has been called. But how shall He accomplish this work. Well, ~~h~~ he shall be exalted and extolled~~a-n~~ and be very high. If you read this in the <sup>E</sup>nglish , you just . . . .

Seminar #12

You read this ~~is~~ in the ~~Englis~~ English , ~~is~~ it just sounds as if it means that he is just going to get lots of praise, . . .but these words in the Hebrew are very literally . . .~~rising~~ He is going to be raised up, and at first we can take that figuratively. He is going to be highly praised, which is an idea that we get from being ~~high~~ highly extolled. There is nothing like extolled . . . .raised u up real high. Is not this the suggestion, that the ~~wor~~ way that He is going to do it is to give himself to be lifted up onthe cross; He says, I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me. It is not that he is just going to be praised, it is not just that he is going to be magnified. The word can be taken that way, but it is rather unusual to have three physical terms for lifting up, like this;, ~~f~~ of piling one on top of the other. While there are many words for ~~praise~~,- praise, He is going to be lifted up. Well, just how, maybe we wont find out, until 700 years passes by, and we see ~~exan-eca~~ exactly how the very details of this . . . but as you first look at this you certainly say that this ~~ck~~ sounds like exaltation, and then you come to a ~~very~~ verse which is a ~~x~~ very unfortunate . . . .As many as were astonished at thee, his ~~mx~~ visage was so marred more than any man, now
