Now there is a word of caution that I might mention conerning this matter of Inspiration I would like any questions on this on any other subject to be written out on a piece of paper and handed to me so that I might be of some help perhaps in answering the questions. Read I Pet. 1:23-25...Being born again.....but the Word of the Lord shall endure for ever." Read also John 14:29, 30; I John 3:8--At first it seems there is a contradiction in these verses. Is Christ really supreme or the Devil? We don't have a picture here of God trying to do the best He can but because He is so weak He can't do much. NO! God has permitted the Devil to much freedom during this age. So Christ came to fulfill the promise of salvation for all those who would believe and the devil has actively tried to thwart the plans og God and with amazzing success in various parts of the world and at various times he has had. Many Christians were killed and tortured for Christ's sake, but the bhood of the martyrs became the seed of the church-then describe how the Devil got hold of the church in 323 R.D. There came in a magical attitude towards spiritual things and everything went down from bad to worse along the spiritual line. Then in the 16th Cent. a revival came along-the Reformation. The main thing pointed out was getting back to the Bible as the Authority--changed the history of the British Islea, Germany, Canada and even the United States. Describe the Civil War and the attitude of both sides toward the Word of God. (Record # 19) Satan is truly the Prince of this world and is constantly trying to find new devices to thwart the will of God. Highef Criticism is the big tool which Satan has worked with and is working with today. The leaders of the church have just been lax and let this enemy creep in unawares. Some might argue over the question of baptisim but all were agreed on the fundamentals of Scripture -- no one ever questioned the method of salvation but accept it by faith. This was the attitude of the ministers 100 years ago. But today the objections raised by college students the very same questions that were raised 100 years ago by the educted class but the ministers were prepared to answer their questions then but they aren't today. It began with the questioning of ancient history and the facts conected therewith, not on the Bible did they make their attack. We must not accept anything in history unless we can prove it abosolutely. ILL. of the I less questioned that great writing as written by Homer.
