

thing that matters, I know of a man ~~k~~ who thinks that winning souls for the Lord is the only thing that matters. He is just so anxious to ~~do~~ evangelistic work, but the Lord has ~~given~~ him no gift in that direction. I don't say that he has n't accomplished anything, he has accomplished something but he has a real ability in the study of ~~the~~ evidences, in study of languages. He could be greatly used in the cutting down ~~of~~ the trees that the termites, .. the way that I spoke of it yesterday. He could be greatly used in helping people to see the truth of the ~~scripture~~-scripture, but he is not interested in that, he thinks that ^{this} ~~is~~ is the only thing that is worthwhile. Very, very foolish, and I know another man who is just opposite. As a ~~young~~- young man, he was one of most ~~of~~ effective evangelist of ~~any~~ man I have ever known. He used to go about and hold meetings, and he was ~~extremendously~~ ..but he saw the ..he saw the attacks on the Bible, he saw the great need of studying the Word of God and answering these attacks. He went over to Germany and received 6 years and received his Ph.D at the ~~Un.~~ Un. of Leipzig, and went back to his native country in Great Britain and there he sought a teaching position and opportunity to write and defend the Word of God, to do this work that ~~this~~ this other man could have done ~~so~~ so well if he would, and this man had set himself to do and spent a lifetime at it and produced practically nothing. He had the ability to bear tremendous fruit as an evangelist, this other one ~~has~~ had the ability to bear tremendous fruit in the study and defense of the Word of God, but each of them had an idea of what he ~~thought~~ thought was important and that ...Oh, there is a tremendous waste in Christian work, and an awful lot of it is due to pride, we get an idea of something that is important, and that is what we ought to be doing, and maybe something else ~~is just as important~~ in God's
