

from it today, but alas, if we realize our responsibility and try to follow it we find the Psalmist coming into frustration. Look at what he says in verse 12, Who can understand his errors. He has just told about the wonders of the Word of God, the wonders of the...the wonderful law of God, the wonderful ~~ful~~ standard that God has given, but he says Who can understand his _____, ~~wh~~ cleanse thou me from secret faults, I may make ~~mx~~ some mistakes, I may do some little things that I don't realize, and terrible things result from it. I heard a story of something that I understand happened in Canada about fifty years ago. A train was rushing through the evening ^{western} in the great open stretch of ~~the~~ Canada, and a great blizzard was raging outside. And in the train there was a woman with a little baby, and she was to get off the train at a certain station ~~x~~ and her husband was to meet her there and to take her ~~x~~ a few miles off to a farm ~~wh~~ which he had been preparing for her ~~com~~ coming, and she ^{was} ~~would~~ afraid ~~h~~ she would miss the station and would go on and said to the conductor, Will you let me know when we get there. Yes, ~~he~~ ~~s~~ he ~~x~~ said, Don't worry, don't worry, I'll let you know. ~~NA~~ And she said, don't forget when we get to this place, I don't want to go past. He said I'll let you know. And the train stopped, and they looked out and they saw a little ~~wh~~ white station there, and she turned to the man next to her, and said, Is this the station? And he said, that's right, this is the station, and so she jumped up and took her baby ~~k~~ and ~~w~~ went to the door, and the man stepped up and pulled the door open for her and she got out, and the train rushed on, and half an hour later they ~~xy~~ came to the next station, and the conductor came back and ~~x~~ said, Where is that woman that is to get off at this station, ~~and~~ and he said
