

look at them and think that they ought to be perfect, but no one of us is perfect. We are simply ~~not~~ pilgrims on the way, free from the ~~burden~~ ^{with} ~~burden~~ with guilt of sin completely through Christ, but ~~there is~~ a long way to go before we have complete victory over its power. Then we noticed yesterday that God has not permitted ~~the~~ ^{sin to} ~~sin to~~ ~~be destroyed~~ ^{destroy} that is still in the world. The image of God is still present in ~~the~~ humanity. There-- We find true men of God ⁱⁿ unexpected places, and sometimes these men accomplish a great deal ^{for Him} but in times ^{Satan} such is the power of sin, ^{their} such is the power of ~~Satan~~ that ordinarily ~~our~~ efforts disappear in time and the places which have been great centers of truth and godliness become deserts. And ~~if~~ we see that all over this world, and that is what happened in the very beginning and God chose to ~~not~~ confine His knowledge in the main, not entirely, ^{to} ~~and to show His determination~~ a small group, ~~and to shew His determination to participate to the group.~~ ^{to preserve a witness in the world} There are witnesses in the world ^{hardly} by the pouring out of the marvellous supernatural acts. Now, it is conceivable under the circumstances ^{that} the existence ^{of the} the great work of Elisha would have succeeded without supernatural ^{acts} which God poured out and he ^{did} pour out tremendous number of ^{at that time} ... If you leave the the Lord Jesus Christ out of consideration who was the very Lord of ~~glory and~~ glory and who could ~~have~~ accomplished the supernatural acts ^{which} of course, no human being could ~~ever~~ have ever accomplished. If you leave ~~the~~ Him out of consideration, I doubt if you will find any two men anywhere in the Bible in connection with whose ministry God has performed as many supernatural acts as He did with Elijah and Elisha. ^{That will} And ^{at} if you leave Moses out, I doubt if you will find any one man in connection with whom He performed many great supernatural acts ^{at} that He ~~was~~ did with ~~any~~ either one of these. ^{That} The fact that ~~the fact~~ ^{that} is true that
