weaning them away from their superstitious ideas, ~~getting~~ ^{giving} them the true understanding of God's word and His ways, so that the work was accomplished through the life of the two men in a way ~~neither~~ ^{that neither} of them could ^{possibly} have done it by himself. ^{If only} ~~Elijah~~ ~~only~~ had been there, there would have been this great thing that everybody in the land knew about it, and was tremendously interested, ^{but} isn't it marvellous?

The proof has come that Jehovah, ^{and} not Baal, is the true God. And then they would have forgotten about it, and ^{at} would have gradually sunk into back to their minds, ^{or} ~~and~~ gradually Jezebel would have ^{again} won them over the leaders, ~~and~~ more and more of them, ^{the} to Baal worship. And Baal worship would have become eventually supreme and eventually there would be people there who would say, Well, we heard ^{of a}

~~some~~ marvellous things that happened some years ago. Somebody told me
any evidence of people believing

~~Looking~~ at all these people who are prominent in the land, They are worshipping ~~Mich~~ Melkart We had better go ~~into~~ that direction. Elijah's work would have made a tremendous flash, and disappeared, if had not been followed by the work of Elisha. On the other hand, if Elisha alone had come without Elijah, he would have won ^a a few people here and there, ^{and} he would have ^{done} ~~run~~ a good solid work, ~~the~~ ^{will} solid work that ^{would} last, perhaps, for some generations, ~~but~~ that would have affected comparatively ^a few people. It think that we can ~~assume~~ and safely say that Elisha with Elijah's work preceding him affected a hundred times as many people, perhaps a thousandx times as many as Elisha ~~could~~ possibly could have ^{reached by} ~~won~~ himself without Elijah preceding, and ^{That} ~~Elijah's~~ work would have had a tremendous impact for a brief time, and then ^{been} ~~was~~ completely gone if it were
