

the ^{the} Now as we noticed ~~the~~ day before yesterday God ordinarily allowed ^s to step forward and work and accomplish, ~~for~~ to sit down and fail. ~~When~~ the gospel ends in one area He has another area of the world in which it is going.
 And who knows today in this terrible modernist attack which we are facing?
 Who knows whether God is going to enable us to win victory over it? Or whether it will succeed ^{and} in our country, become ^{He} ~~the~~ ~~desert~~ desert of ignorance of God, and of wickedness and perhaps God may ~~carry~~ carry on ^{the} work perhaps in ~~xxxxxxx~~ some entirely different part of the world? Or whether as ~~it~~ is entirely possible it may be that we are coming to the end of the age, and ^{the} rapture will take place soon, ^{and} God will pour ~~out~~ out His wrath, upon ^{this} ~~the~~ earth. We cannot tell what the results will be and we do not have any reason to expect that God is going to pour ^{the} out miracles in this age that He poured out with Elijah and Elisha, and we have no reason to think that Elijah and Elisha in that case with their great work would have succeeded ~~upon~~ apart from these miracles; but God poured out those miracles because it was His determination that belief in God would continue ^{there} in the land of Israel, that ^{the} a place would be available for the ~~bringing of the~~ writing of ^{His} Holy Word, and for the preparation for the coming of His Son. He poured out ^{His} miracles there as we cannot expect Him to do in this age. ~~Although~~ Although in this age as in that one He will act in ~~the~~ ways of providence in ^a marvellous way ^{to} bless and help the efforts of those who ~~truly~~ ~~believe~~ in Him. And so there is one approach to ~~Elijah~~ and Elisha. Look at the marvellous miracle working God and what He did through ~~Elijah~~ Elijah and Elisha, and I think that is ^{the} a usual approach taken and it is a ^{very} good approach, and it is a very worthwhile
