

Behold now ^{will} there be thy servants fifty strong men, let them go ~~and~~ - we pray thee, and seek thy master, lest peradventure ~~that~~ the spirit of the Lord had ^Q taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or ^{into some} ~~valley~~ valley. Elisha might have said, ^{you} ye poor fools, Believe in God, the great God of universe, ^{do} you think that He would pick up Elijah and drop him down in some other place ^{starve} where the poor fellow would ~~start~~ ^{out} to death? if you do not go ^{it is} and find him? What silly, superstitious ~~fool~~ fools they were and how easy for us when we ~~say~~ face a situation like that and to ~~dash~~ ^{do we} out and tell them ~~of~~ what we think of them. And when we get a nice feeling, we ~~say~~ ^{have told} people off. ^{And love} we ~~exert~~ ^{and bus} our little influences ~~when we have~~ chance to accomplish something.

Some years ago I stepped into an office and saw a friend of mine who was working with another man ~~and~~ --, and he ^{ad in} got very irritated by what the other man was doing, and ~~so~~ he ^{had} written a letter to him. He was under this other man to some extent. And then Oh, he told him off. He told him ^{what} he had done wrong. ^{What box} What ~~box~~ mistake he had made and everything, and ^{he had!} look at this letter ^{that} and I am going to mail ~~this~~ to so and so. ^{And} I read it over and I said, ^{I think} that is great. It certainly is great. ^{you have done} ~~It is~~ a mighty good job. But I said, ~~but~~ you could do a better one. Why don't you rewrite the letter, make it twice as strong, ^{will} and then throw it in the wastebasket. You ^{the way} get it out of your system, ~~And~~ you won't hurt the Lord's work / ~~You will do well~~ if you ~~do not~~ send a thing like this. The man ^{Dear} got his faults ~~Who~~ has not got the ~~box~~ faults. You have got ^a plenty big job ^{handling} on your own without spending ^{you} time criticizing someone else the Lord is using. ^{And} if ~~the~~ the Lord wants ^{you} you to ~~help~~ help him, He will probably give you a chance, ^{which} ~~He~~ will ask you for help, if you comport yourself in such a way with him ^{as} to get his respect. He will
