

so this weak king went on for some years, but the Jesuits had ~~gotten~~ ^{become}

~~to be~~ ^{we'd} awaked to the situation and began working around among the people, rousing animosity against the Hugonts ^{events which} when and in the end, ~~this line ended and /the next Hugont in line, the next~~ ^{was not yet there before} man in line ^{for} to the throne ~~among the Hugonts~~ ^{was a} had all planned to ~~...~~ ^{and what would have been the result} except Paris the Jesuits had whipped the people of Paris ~~to such a~~ fanaticism that the people of Paris up to such ~~that~~ they were eating grass, and they would not open the gate ^{and let entered} unless Henry IV ⁱⁿ Henry IV finally ^{felt the only way to conquer} France, he fought ~~France~~ and Paris ^{what good is your protest} was turned over to the Roman Catholics, and, of course,

He thought he gave freedom and liberty to the Hugonts by ^{the edict of Nantes,} ~~later~~ the Hugonts were driven out ^{but his grand son revoked it 100 yrs later &} from Paris. with terrible persecution.

There was a time when overturning could have taken place, and there was ^{the the} a man of power who could do it. God ^{has not said,} does not say / No matter how wicked ^{the}

and no matter how bad the situation is, it is up to ^{you} ~~to~~ ^{to overthrow} submit.

but the place of ^a Christians is not to be spending all his time and efforts trying to overthrow an established government in the hope that ^{do} you can get something better. His place is to preach the gospel, ^{to} and spread ~~for~~ the word of God ^{to} to spend God's truth in the situation where he finds himself, but if the situation ^{is} such that there is a good chance of ^{can} ~~overthrow~~ ^{to} overturning succeeding, then the proper thing for a Christian to do is /put his influence in favor of making that change. It is God's will that we have order. It is God's will that law and order be preserved, ^{and so}

~~but-~~ it is God's will that we get a better government and ^{do} to away with a wicked government, ^{But} a Christian's primary ^{concerning} attention

~~should be paid~~ on the ^{work} ~~the~~ word of God, and only ^{give} ~~gets~~ his support to