Psalm 110

May 25, 1965 AAM

The 110th Psalm. The Lord said unto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand until I make thine enemies my ~~thy~~ footstool. Mr. Malsbury has so beautifully pointed out we are engaged in a great battle today. Humanly speaking it looks as if evil was going to spread over the world until there was nothing left, of the true Gospel.

But how wonderful it is we have our Lord's statement that God has declared here and He cannot ~~lyfe~~ lie: Sit thou on my right-hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool. The battle is not ours. The battle is the Lord's. As Mr. Malsbury says, If we do not stand up in the task in which the Lord calls us, the Lord will get the task done some other way, but we will miss the privilege of performing that task. The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion. Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power. "They people shall be willing." Scripture says that every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord to the glory of God the Father. Someday everyone will bow to Him. But Oh how wonderful for those who are willing, those who are His people, those who are willing. As you go out from this place and finish your takss. I give you this appeal: Be willing. Be willing to do what the Lord calls you to do. Be willing to serve Him as He leads you. Be willing to follow Him and put Him first in all things. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power in the beauty of holiness of the womb of the morning thou hast the dew of thy . Today people don't think much of the beauty of holiness. Today they talk about the new morality. The new immorality is a better term for it. Today they are casting aside all the standards upon which our nation has been built.
