

and it must be because of a particular sin in Job's life, and they ~~discuss~~ discuss back and forth and in the end God reveals His greatness and His power, and practically says to Job You ~~don't~~ don't need to know the background, all you need to know is that I am God, and what I do is right and I work all things together for good to them that love me, and perhaps the good is later on and it seems evil now, but in the book ~~that~~ of Job God never explains to Job what happened in the first two chapters, the background of it he learned probably after he died, but the lesson for it ~~wasn't~~ wasn't to know the details that we are given, but ~~to~~ to learn to trust God and to know that God's will is best whether the circumstances ^{seem} are good or whether they seem bad to us. If we are doing the will of God, God may make the circumstances work out just right, in order ~~that~~ that we ~~accomplish~~ accomplish more, or God may make the circumstances work out just wrong, in order that we may learn certain lessons that He wants us to have or in order that we may develop certain features of our character that He ~~wants~~ wants developed so that we can deal with ~~our~~ other ~~ex-situati-~~ situations that will arise later. I knew a man who was a minister in his first parish, and work was going ~~to~~ nicely and he had a little girl born, and the girl was about a month old and his wife was taken ill ~~and~~ and died, and he said how could such a thing happen, He ~~said~~ said Here I am giving my life to serve the Lord and I am left with this ~~little girl~~ little girl and my wife gone, ~~if~~ in his ~~is~~ this ~~six~~ situation, how could the Lord treat one this way, and then he said I know Ro. 8:28 that God works' all things together for good to them that love the Lord, ^{if the} ~~the circumstances~~ circumstances are terrible, God must have a good purpose in it, thought I don't know what it is, and this happened ~~in~~ back in 1917 and the next year the flu epidemic and man after man had ~~his~~ his wife swept away, or the woman had the
