

for the many truths in your Word. We thank you for Jesus Christ who has borne our sins on the cross. And O our God we think of this sin of resentment, this sin of jealousy, this sin of unjustified suspicious which we can have of others. O our Father ~~waxpaxx~~ help us not to permit such things to rankle in our hearts and injure us/ When we have proof of that which is wrong, of that which is contrary to your your holy law and about which something should be done, help us our Father to take the appropriate action and not to be held back by fear or by unwillingness to be involved or to conspicuous. But O our God help us to avoid suspicion, help us to avoid feelings of resentment. Help us to realize -- to recognize that these also are sins and to lay them at the foot of the cross, and may the Lord Jesus Christ substitute for them in our minds and in our hearts the love of Christ that in all things we may show forth the glory of Him who gave Himself that we might live. We ask in Jesus name. Amen.
