

will to enable us to go forward with power and seemingly accomplish much for the Lord. But O our Father we know that you desire that we be faithful wherever our lot is cast. That we keep our eyes on Christ, and know that your will is best, and your will is our sanctification. And we have circumstances to go through that are important for us. Help us to be patience. Help us to be tolerant of others. Help us to help others grow in grace and in the knowledge of Christ, and above all help us to keep our eyes upon Him. We ask in Jesus name, Amen.
