

The Old Testament in the Life of the Believer

Dr. Allan A. MacRae

Lecture # 6

November 1971

After the chapel there is to be a picture of all the students and faculty and so we hope you will keep that in mind right after chapel . . .

I was expecting Mr. Denny to be attending our chapel service this a.m. Maybe he did not find the way here, and so will come in during it. But most of you heard Mr. Denny speak last year or the year before, and he spoke after the chapel service. He represents the Presbyterian Ministers Life Insurance Fund which is limited to ministers and theological students, and we are glad to give him opportunity to speak to any who might be interested

Now we are looking at the O.T. in the life of the believer, and we are looking at the pilgrimage journey of the Christian. Under No. 3, The Situation at the Beginning of the Book of Numbers, and in that we surveyed what occurred after coming out of Egypt up to the time when the book of Num. begins. And so last time we looked at No. 11, Victory over Amalek, and No. 12 The Beginning of Organization, Chapter 18 of Exodus.

There is one more head under this that I want to look at rather briefly although it covers a large amount of material. That is No. 13 -- Presentation of the Law.

This covers the last half of Exodus which begins with the 10 commandments the and/presentation of the specific laws for the journey through the wilderness and then the book of Lev. with the many detailed laws about sacrifice . And then after the Book of ~~De~~ Num. we have the Bk. of Deut. in which the law is repeated. And so there is just a few points under this I want to mention/ because we are only looking at it now as -- in its place in the pilgrimage journey and as preliminary to what we have in the book of Num. And so under this 13. Presentation ~~of the Law~~ of the Law. I'd like to make a small a. The relation of O.T. law to the N.T.
