

I would -- could have just as much of the good things of this life as my friend who is now working for IBM or some other corporation and he is -- has got things which a person in Christian work just doesn't get.

Well, we are going to have that experience, everyone of us. We are going to have it. But we must learn to look to the Lord and look to him for the answer. So there is the longing for Egypt. And then we find Moses and Aaron vs 5 --

Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. Moses and Aaron are just about prostrate here. They have done all this work. They have worked so hard. They worn themselves out and here they find the people turning away from them. Here they find teh people wanting to go back to Egypt. You're going to have that experience if you serve the Lord. In fact if you try to build any organization of any kind you are going to have it at times. Any kind of work --- the Lord's work or any other you're going to have that experience at times, but if you are doing the Lord's work you can learn to keep your eyes on Him. ~~And~~ and you can know that if you follow him he will work things out. And so Moses and Aaron didn't speak here. They simply fell on their faces. But Joshua now takes a hand. Joshua had waited. He didn't speak before. Caleb was doing a good job of it. Joshua probably ^{wouldn't} ~~wouldn't~~ have added much if had spoke. They would have said, Oh, he's just representing Moses. He's not speaking for himself. But now the situation is getting serious. Joshua and Caleb rent their clothes and spoke to the people and they both spoke up strongly here and they said to the people, The land we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land. If the Lord delight in us, then he will bring us ~~it~~ into this land and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey. Only rebel not yet against the Lord, nor fear the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the Lord is with us: fear them not. What nonsense, this sounded like to the other spies. Here are these ~~g~~ big giants that we felt like grasshoppers in ~~g~~front of, and here are these powerful walls and this powerful land, What could we do against them? And they say, Fear them not! And so all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And it was only the glory of the Lord appearing in the
