We have seen this happen in the case of seminary after seminary, ~~denomination~~ denomination after denomination. However, Satan does not always succeed in doing this. ~~There~~ There are many cases where he fails, or where he tries it for only a certain length of time, until those who are struggling to resist him pull so hard in the other direction that he uses an entirely different method. The Scripture says in one place that Satan goes as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour, but in other places it speaks of the ~~subtle~~ subtle wiles of Satan who comes disguised as an angel of light. This aspect I sometimes think of ~~as~~ under the example of/the tug-of-war. the pulling of

He pulls and pulls, and we pull and pull and pull in ~~the~~ the opposite ~~directions~~ direction. Then suddenly he lets go of the rope. We topple over backward. We take right principles, or right objectives, and we carry them to ~~an~~ a wrong extreme. We take one doctrine, one aspect, ~~one~~ purpose, and magnify it out of proportion to others. Thus Satan destroys our testimony to the Lord and sometimes does more harm to the work of Christ in this way than in the other way.

As I stood at Jamestown and thought of those old pioneers as they began a difficult and tedious effort ~~for-God~~ to build a new nation, and thought of the wonderful ~~f~~ results that have come later, I wondered. Is our nation holding true to its original purposes? Is God supreme in the life lives of our people? Do we really deserve His favor? Oh, I pray that FS° will succeed in ~~now~~ sending out many men who will go thoroughout the world, preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ and turning many from darkness to light. God has blessed our efforts. ~~Many of~~ ~~our~~ our graduates are now
