

~~collegiate~~ college or theological seminary, in the world, that has as high an average of teaching ability in its faculty as we have here at Faith.

May the Sem^o continue for many years to stand foursquare as it has stood (God or Satan?) these thirty-four years. If ever Satan should gain control, may he then HE?

give courage and determination to some who have received the ~~training~~ training here to step out again and make a new start. If they should do such a thing, not in self-glory, not (sounds like "institute") (to seek(?)) self-will or personal desire, but seeking to stand on the great ideals on upon which Faith was founded. They might suffer privation, as we did when the Sem^o was begun, but we can be sure that God ~~would~~ would bless the efforts, and in His providence would cause His perfect will to be done.
