

make my way out of the ~~xxx~~ canyon. My mouth became so dry that there was not even a drop of saliva. My glasses got dust on them and I could not get a drop of moisture to ~~xxx~~ clean them with. I took a little sugar lump of sugar and put it into my mouth. Without saliva it tasted like sand. I had to take my fingernails and scrape it off the side of the mouth to get rid of it. Three passed before I was able to get ~~xxx~~ out to water, but I had no further fear because I knew that God was leading and that God would bring me safely to my destination.

Even though my many wilderness trips have given me a taste of something somewhat similar to pioneering, the greatest pioneering it has been a great joy to take part in one venture that was really on definitely similar to the pioneering that the Pilgrims did. This was the founding of Faith Seminary. As a student I went to attended PS^o which had for a century stood foursquare for the teaching of the Bible. ~~M~~ During the previous few decades seminary after seminary had capitulated to the ~~demand of~~ demands of modernism. Princeton's own faculty was divided. All ~~xxx~~ claimed to be true to the Word of God, but some ~~desired~~ desired to fellowship with modernists and allow them to give (bw?) set forth(?) promulgate(?) their teachings in the ~~se~~ seminary itself. Others desired to stand foursquare and uncompromisingly for God's truth. In 1929 the GA^o decided to change the governing board of the seminary in such a way that the modernists would gain control. Under these circum^o the veteran professors, Dr. RDW^o and Dr. JGM^o, decided to lead a movement to start a new institution that would stand for the Word of God apart from the pressures that they had been experiencing at P^o, and from the certain defeat ~~xxx~~ that the then constitution of the new ~~Board of~~ board of directors placed before them. I joined this faculty and had great fellowship with these wonderful men of God. A year and a half later Dr. ~~W~~^o died. Seven and a half years later Dr. M^o died. Gradually, during the latter years, I ~~xxx~~ saw the institution
